Specifically, the Reports will include recommendations that, if followed, should demonstrate a path to a ROI of at least three times (3x) the Charges paid for the Service. This guarantee pertains solely to the presence of the path outlined in the Report, and not to the actual achievement of the cost savings.

The actual implementation of the recommended changes provided is the sole responsibility of the Customer or any third party it engages unless the Customer decides to procure the implementation or configuration from Connect which will be governed by a separate agreement.
